

"I came that they may have life and have it abundantly." (John 10:10b)

Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." John 4:10

